TO ENSURE THAT THE RIGHTS OF SOVEREIGN TRIBAL GOVERNMENTS ARE FULLY RESPECTED

The United States Government has a unique legal relationship with the Native American tribal governments as set forth in the Constriction of the United States, treaties, statues, and court decisions [U.S. Land Grant No. 923 in the name of "the Washitaw," Spanish Certificate of June 20, 1779; Plan. 1518; Register No. 3, April 12, 1802]

RE: U.S. Government to Indigenous Government Relations
A Directive Superceding Previous Treaty Authority
Executive Memorandum of April 29, 1994
Signed by President Bill Clinton

Purpose: To clarify our responsibility to ensure that the Federal Government operates within a government-to-government relationship with federally recognized Native American tribes . . . working relationship reflecting respect for the rights of self-government due the sovereign tribal governments.

- Principles:
- (a) The head of each executive department and agency shall be responsible for ensuring that the department or agency operates within a government-to-government relationship with federally recognized tribal governments.
 - (b) Each executive department and agency shall consult, to the greatest extent practicable and to the extent permitted by law, with tribal government prior to taking actions that affect federally recognized tribal governments. All such consultations are to be open and candid so that all interested parties may evaluate for themselves the potential impact of relevant proposals.
 - (d) Each executive department and agency shall take appropriate steps to remove any procedural impediments to working directly and effectively with tribal governments on activities that affect the trust property and/or government rights of the tribes.
 - (f) Each executive department and agency shall apply the requirements of Executive Orders Nos. 12875 ("Enhancing the Intergovernmental Partnership") and 12866 ("Regulatory Planning and Review") to design solutions and tailor Federal programs, in appropriate circumstances, to address specific or unique needs of tribal communities.
